

Understanding the Cancer Journey at the Durham Regional Cancer Centre

You are invited to come for a tour of the Durham Regional Cancer

Wednesday February 7th

5:30 - 7:30 pm

(Dinner is included)

During the tour, you will be given information:

- On the patient experience
- About different cancer treatments
- About supports available to patients and their families
- By an indigenous patient, an indigenous radiation oncologist and the Aboriginal Navigator.

Free transportation will be available from your community to the cancer centre. To register or to book a ride, call Sylvia Hache or receptionist at 905-352-9931.

For more information, call
Kathy MacLeod Beaver, the Aboriginal Navigator at 905-576-8711 extension 2554.

